

Pace Chevrolet Gives Donations Collected To Pathfinder Services and Love, Inc.

Pace Chevrolet in Huntington gave a trunk load of donations collected this holiday season for families served by Pathfinder Services and Love, Inc. on Thursday. Joe Burgess and Joe Pais from Pace Chevrolet gave Beth Stevens- Family Self Sufficiency Coordinator for Pathfinder Services and Joey Spiegel-Executive Director of Love, Inc. the donations on Thursday just in time for Christmas.

Pace partnered with Pathfinder Services and Love, Inc. to collect donations of personal hygiene, baby products and household cleaning products to assist families in Huntington County during this holiday season. All donations received will go towards families served by Pathfinder Services and Love, Inc. in Huntington.

Pace Chevrolet collected items throughout November and December at their store location at 239 Hauenstein Road across from Wal-Mart in Huntington. Additionally, for items collected, each person who donated was entered into a chance to win two $50 Visa Gift Cards to be used this holiday season. Rose Decker and Donna Hedrick each won a $50 gift certificate.

“We wanted to take a moment to thank the Huntington Community for your support in reaching out to families who are less fortunate in our community,” stated Stevens. “With a difficult 2011 for many families we have seen a greater need in our community and with partnerships like the one we have with Pace and Love, Inc. we are able to help families in need in Huntington County,” Stevens concluded.
